Armed with nothing but a sewing machine and some serious skills, Jenice Fallenstein hand-crafted costumes for her children every Halloween to create a unique array of characters and styles they loved. Later, the Fallenstein family had the awesome idea to open up a costume rental shop in their garage, allowing the whole town to experience these quality costumes. With just a few dozen styles, the idea was an immediate hit and continued to grow each year.

Amidst this local success, Tom Fallenstein had the idea to take the business online, and that leads us to the company we are today! Not only do we sell over 10,000 costumes and accessories, we design and create thousands of exclusive costumes you won’t find anywhere else.

Our incredible team is comprised of 175 year-round employees and thousands of seasonal employees, all operating out of a 200,000 square foot warehouse in Southern Minnesota.

We ship #NerdyGoofyFun all around the world!!
Tom Fallenstein is the founder and CEO of FUN.com. He was born and raised in Mankato, Minnesota, surrounded by all things Halloween.

Tom built the company's first website, Flapper Costumes.com, in 2001 with $5,000 he borrowed from his parents. He sold one costume style in just three colors and ran the website out of his college dorm (back then the entire inventory fit in a closet). Soon after, he built three more websites while continuing to study Computer Information Science and Graphic Design at Minnesota State University, Mankato. After graduating in December of 2004, he decided to make Costumes Galore his full time job, transforming the business into what we know today as FUN.com and HalloweenCostumes.com.

TRENDS FOR 2020
MAJOR TRENDS

Halloween costume trends largely reflect what is popular in entertainment. We expect that will remain true in 2020, even as release dates get changed and movies jump from theaters to on-demand services.

Superhero costumes like Wonder Woman, Harley Quinn, Spider-Man, Batman, the Avengers, and the Justice League are still on top after years of blockbuster releases. Baby Yoda, the Mandalorian, and other Star Wars costumes will be popular thanks to The Mandalorian. While Disney costumes like Elsa are always a hit, the launch of Disney+ has renewed interest in classic Disney characters, too.

Face masks aren’t exactly a costume, but we anticipate seeing many creative ways to integrate them with Halloween masks and costumes. Matching face masks and costumes will definitely be popular this year. Other top trend projections include costumes from Harry Potter, Tiger King, Sonic the Hedgehog, dinosaurs, and animals. USPS and UPS continue to be popular themes for pet costumes, a growing part of the industry.
MOVIES, TV, AND NOSTALGIA
You can expect to see plenty of Disney and Pixar costumes featuring Disney Princesses, Mulan, Monsters, Inc., Onward, Coco, and Toy Story thanks to Disney+. Other trends for kids include Peppa Pig and Minions. We have also found that Game of Thrones still resonates with adults. Nostalgia has a significant impact on costume trends, so look out for favorites like Ghostbusters, Hocus Pocus, Scooby-Doo, The Princess Bride, and Bill & Ted.

DO IT YOURSELF
When the perfect costume is not available, some crafty Halloween fans make their own! We think you will see do-it-yourself (DIY) Hamilton, Tiger King, and The Last of Us costumes this year. We also expect plenty of homemade costumes based on what you can find in the closet, plus memes that are hot right before Halloween. Costume kits are a great way to combine some essential accessories with your own clothes to complete a costume.
Beyond classic and traditional costumes, we've got our eyes on some other trends.

Uniform costumes are a safe bet most years, but expect to see more first responder costumes like doctors and nurses in 2020. We have also seen a greater variety of inflatables and video game costumes. Don't forget decor, either! Indoor and outdoor decorations will be popular with Halloween fans who want to celebrate at home this year.

The last trend we want to mention is the increasing visibility of group costumes. Every year, we see more costume coordination between families and friends. This means planned themes for couples, groups, pet owners and pets, even maternity and parent/baby carrier ideas. The theme could be anything as long as it takes multiple people to pull it off!
Here at HalloweenCostumes.com, we understand that Halloween will be different in 2020. But Spooky Season does not have to be spooky at all! We do not expect families and friends to cancel plans for their favorite holiday. Instead, we are helping customers find creative ways to celebrate Halloween with a little more distance and coverage. That way, everyone can feel safe while also having a memorable Halloween!

We have created a “Happy Halloween 2020” page with plenty of tips, tricks, and treats for everyone who wants to change up their Halloween routine.

Here are a few of examples on how to Halloween this year:

Halloween Scavenger hunts can be fun for the whole family. Give your children a list of Halloween-themed items to look for while admiring the neighborhood Halloween decorations from the sidewalk. Our “How to Halloween 2020” resource has plenty of DIY Halloween decorations ideas to create a spooky spectacle this season.

Masks have always been a part of Halloween, but this year we are encouraging face masks that are fun and on-theme. Face masks can be part of a costume, just like any other Halloween accessory! However, please make sure any mask that you use does meet PPE standards. Do not wear a costume mask over a protective cloth mask as this might make it hard to breathe. Instead, consider using a Halloween-themed cloth mask.
